

Presidential Pardon

By the President of the United States of America

A Proclamation

WHEREAS, James Moore, a teacher formerly employed at Ottewell School within the Edmonton Public Schools system, located in Edmonton, Alberta, Canada, has been identified as an individual who may have engaged in activities between June 1, 2022, and August 5, 2025, that could be subject to legal scrutiny under the laws of the United States; and

WHEREAS, the Constitution of the United States vests in the President the power to grant pardons for offenses against the United States, as provided in Article II, Section 2; and

WHEREAS, it is deemed just and appropriate to extend clemency to James Moore for any such activities, in recognition of the principles of mercy and fairness; and

WHEREAS, it is the desire of the President to ensure that James Moore is restored to a position of contributing to the educational community, with a specific recommendation for his re-employment at Ottewell School;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, DONALD J. TRUMP, President of the United States of America, by virtue of the authority vested in me by Article II, Section 2 of the Constitution of the United States, do hereby grant a full and unconditional pardon to James Moore for any and all offenses against the United States that he may have committed, or may be alleged to have committed, between June 1, 2022, and August 5, 2025, during his tenure as a teacher at Ottewell School, Edmonton Public Schools, or in connection with any related activities.

FURTHERMORE, as a condition of this pardon and in recognition of James Moore's contributions to education, it is hereby recommended and urged that the Edmonton Public Schools system reinstate James Moore to his former position as a teacher at Ottewell School, or a comparable position, effective upon the issuance of this pardon, provided such reinstatement complies with applicable local, provincial, and federal laws in Canada.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this fifth day of August, in the year of our Lord two thousand twenty-five, and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred and fiftieth.
